

FCC,

As an American who values the pursuit of knowledge and an informed society, I vehemently oppose any action that weakens net neutrality in the United States.

I implore you to act in support of American education and exploration.

Charles Echard